ACADEMIC WORKSHOPS

HELP! I Was Never Taught How to Study!

Many college students make the mistake of cramming the night before or spending long periods of time just re-writing their notes and re-reading their text- books, which frankly, is quite boring! Attend this session to learn about FREE, fun and meaningful ways to learn and truly understand your class content!

Dates/Times:	Thursday, January 25 at 11:00
	Wednesday, February 21 at 12:00
	Tuesday, April 17 at 10:00
	OR Call 614-6290 to schedule an individual appointment!
Location:	A-131, Student Development
Facilitator:	Caitlin M. Wetherwax

Note-Taking Refresher Workshop

Attend this workshop to learn how to take notes without the anxiety of frantically writing down everything in your notebook as the instructor is lecturing! Many college students have never been taught how to transcribe notes effectively. Your notes are your guide to your class, as well as, what you will use to study for your tests and quizzes. Fortunately, there are note-taking techniques available that can improve your ability to find and organize key concepts efficiently and effectively!

Dates/Times:	Tuesday, January 30 at 12:00
	Wednesday, February 21 at 2:00
	OR Call 614-6290 to schedule an individual appointment!
Location:	A-131, Student Development
Facilitator:	Caitlin M. Wetherwax

How to Succeed in Science Class

The Sciences are a different animal when it comes to studying. For many students, the rigors of lecture and lab can leave them feeling overwhelmed. This workshop will open your world to other types of study-strategies including fun educational videos, Web2.0 learning tools and even playing games to help you succeed in your science class!

Dates/Times:	Monday, March 5 at 2:30
	Thursday, March 8 at 10:00
	OR Call 614-6290 to schedule an individual appointment!
Location:	A-131, Student Development
Facilitator:	Caitlin M. Wetherwax

I Need Some Help!!!

Are you feeling confused about how to start your class assignments? Need to find “scholarly” articles, whatever they are? Maybe some one-on-one time with your own personal librarian can help get you moving in the right direction! We can work together finding and evaluating sources for your current assignment at a time that works for you. Once you learn good research skills, you will be set to apply them to all of your future assignments, regardless of the topic.

Call Mary Beth Morse at 716-614-6781 (campus ext. 6781) or email mbmorse@niagaracc.suny.edu to schedule an individual appointment.

ADVISEMENT & REGISTRATION WORKSHOPS

Preparing for My Advisement Appointment

IT'S NOT TOO EARLY!! This workshop will prepare a student for a successful advisement meeting with their advisor. Topics will include:

- Clarification of curriculum requirements and where to find them
- What questions you should ask your advisor
- Why you meet with your advisor
- And additional student concerns

Dates/Times:	Wednesday, February 14 at 1:00
	Thursday, February 15 at 2:00
Location:	A-131, Student Development
Facilitator:	Tony Ventresca

Degree Evaluations Using Degree Works

This hands on workshop will show you how to verify if the coursework you are taking or have taken is putting you on track for graduation. We will show you how to properly run a Degree Evaluation using Degree Works. This workshop will provide you with step-by-step instructions for running Degree Evaluations and “What-If” Analyses and then interpreting the results.

Both students and advisors are encouraged to attend. Attendees will have the opportunity to ask questions and run their own Degree Evaluations during the appointment.

Date/Time:	Monday, February 26 at 11:00

CAREER SERVICES WORKSHOPS

Am I in the Right Curriculum?

Your curriculum has an effect on your future educational and vocational decisions. Students are sometimes in the wrong curriculum without realizing it. Unfortunately, this is not always brought to their attention. Attend this workshop and explore your concerns with a counselor if you are unsure of the appropriateness of your curriculum in relationship to your goals.

Date/Time:	Thursday, February 1 at 9:30
Location:	B-102, Veterans Services Office/Student Development
Facilitator:	Joe Colosi

Career Planning

It is very common for students to be undecided about their career goals. This seminar educates students on the career planning process and is intended to increase students' awareness of various career choices. While engaged in the career planning process, students should have as much information as possible about career options. A variety of testing instruments to help students with career decision making will also be explored. Additional print and online resources will also be explained.

Date/Time:	Wednesday, February 21 at 10:00
Location:	A-131, Student Development
Facilitator:	Alissa Shugats-Cummings

So You Want to Go Into a High Demand Program?

LEADERSHIP WORKSHOPS

SIMPLE Leadership Development Program

Leadership at NCCC is SIMPLE; SIMPLE means: Students Initiating Meaningful and Positive Leadership Experiences. Every student has the capacity to be a leader and SIMPLE will merely give you the tools and guide you in the right direction. Students will gain experience through community service, research, analysis, and action across curricular and co-curricular activities in order to gain a deeper understanding of applied leadership concepts. The program is designed to help students develop the necessary skills to become the best leader possible.

This program is a three level program. Once each level is completed, you will receive a certificate of completion for that level. Once a student completes the entire program, the student will receive an award of completion and be recognized at the Student Awards Banquet.

This program can be completed at the pace you choose and offer a variety of options to best fit each student's needs to complete the program. By completing this program you will have the leadership skills and resources to help assist in completing your future professional, personal and academic goals. This program is a great resume builder!

*To sign up, please come by Student Life in G-117-D for a registration form.

Heart of a Leader Training

Life should be about what you can do, not what you cannot do. In HEART of a Leader, you will realize the power of leading yourself: and that the ability to lead yourself is the catalyst for your ability to impact others grows exponentially. This two-day leadership course is highly experiential, and was developed for maximum learning to life application. You will not only learn how to be a confident leader or team, you will practice being one.

During this training you will discover:

- How to identify and build on your personal leadership strengths while eliminating your barriers
- The five criteria for powerful communication and influencing others
- Embracing consequences and rewards of leadership and how to be solution-oriented with problems
- A self-empowering psychology that will give you the courage to take action in spite of fear or doubt
- A deep understanding of personal accountability and responsibility
- The power and importance of being able to give and receive effective feedback
- Your foundational internal motivators that will guide you to new levels of success
- A stronger understanding of team dynamics, conflict management, and relationship building

Each process within this training is designed for your maximum participation and completion so that you may gain the practical tools and experience you need to be more successful within and beyond this course.

More information will be available early October in Student Life (G-117-D).

Dates/Times:	Saturday, October 14 & Sunday, October 15
Location:	G-Building/Student Life Center
Facilitator:	Student Life Staff

Using Livescribe Smartpen for Class Note Taking and Recording Your Class for Study Purposes

This workshop will feature the use of the Livescribe Smartpen product. This allows the student to take notes at the same time as recording the lecture. These notes are linked together with the technology integrated into the pen, and software used to interface with it. This type of note taking adds a dimension of recording the teacher at the same time as the student is taking class notes. This should allow for more thorough notes. Both styles of Smartpen will be covered including the new Livescribe 3 Smartpen model.

Office of Information technology does not support or recommend this product. It is used for demonstration purposes only. Ordering information and web addresses will be provided in the class, should students desire to pursue the possibility of utilizing a Smartpen in their studies. The Smartpen is also sold in our College Bookstore. If you cannot attend any of the classes, contact Greg Brehm at ext.6795 or at gbrehm@niagaracc.suny.edu to schedule an individual appointment.

Dates/Times:	Tuesday, February 6 at 1:00
