LET FYE (FIRST YEAR EXPERIENCE) BE YOUR GPS

The FYE program is designed to offer support, resources, and referrals for all students who have currently earned less than 25 credit hours. We want to provide you with the tools needed to navigate your college experience successfully. Let's get you started!

To meet with your personal Success Coach, find them in your Success Network in Starfish, call 614-6290, or stop by Student Development to make an appointment. And visit us on the web at <http://www.niagaracc.suny.edu/fye/>. We look forward to assisting you!

Study Skills and College Success

You've gotten your high school degree or equivalency, but did you learn how to study along the way? You may have done well in high school without ever having to study, or maybe you struggled to get through. It's very common for new college students to not have the skills set or the discipline to study effectively: something that is essential to be successful in college. You will find it isn't all about working harder, but finding more effective and efficient ways to utilize the time you have to get the work done. Please join us to learn some proven techniques and discover resources that will help you keep those grades up in college or boost them to the next level.

Advisement Preparation and Academic Planning

Have you found yourself asking: How do I register for next semester? What classes should I take? Who is my advisor and how do I find them? Do I even have an advisor? Can I walk in to see them or do I need an appointment? Can I use my old RAP number? What if I want to change my major and how do I do it? These and many more questions will be answered by attending this workshop. It will help you feel more prepared and confident when meeting with your advisor and instruct you on using Degree Works degree audit and Banner Web more effectively. Remember – Spring registration is right around the corner so don't miss out on this workshop!

ACADEMIC WORKSHOPS

I Need Some Help!!!

Are you feeling confused about how to start your class assignments? Need to find “scholarly” articles, whatever they are? Maybe some one-on-one time with your own personal librarian can help get you moving in the right direction! We can work together finding and evaluating sources for your current assignment at a time that works for you. Once you learn good research skills, you will be set to apply them to all of your future assignments, regardless of the topic.

Call Mary Beth Morse at 716-614-6781 (campus ext. 6781) or email mbmorse@niagaracc.suny.edu to schedule an individual appointment.

Become a Word Nerd and Learn New Vocabulary Strategies

Did you know that there are over 1 million words in the English language and it increases daily? College students, on average, know approximately 15% of these words. College courses are full of unfamiliar jargon, terminology, and new words to learn. Come spend an hour with us as we learn new vocabulary acquisition techniques through games, fun activities, and new strategies. There will be candy!

DO YOU KNOW WHO YOUR ACADEMIC ADVISOR IS?

Students can view their advisor assignment through Degree Works, NCCC's student information system, by following these directions:

- Login to Degree Works
- Enter Your Twelves Username (Example: "JSmith123") and Password
- Click "Login"
- Academic Advisor name and contact information
- located at the top right of the "Academic/Demographic Summary" Section.

Degree Evaluations Using Degree Works

This hands on workshop will show you how to verify if the coursework you are taking or have taken is putting you on track for graduation. We will show you how to properly run a degree evaluation using Degree Works. This workshop will provide you with step-by-step instructions for running degree evaluations and “What-If” Analyses and then interpreting the results.

Both students and advisors are encouraged to attend. Attendees will have the opportunity to ask questions and run their own degree evaluations during the appointment.

Dates/Times:	Thursday, October 11 at 11:00
Location:	A-201, Registration & Records Office
Facilitator:	Melissa Lock & Kristin Walck

How to Use Course Scheduler

Come and see the new software that builds class schedule options that work for you. Tell us what days/times you cannot take classes. Tell us what classes you need to take. Then view a variety of class schedules that work for you! It’s the latest and greatest software that considers your busy schedules and streamlines the time it takes to build a schedule.

CAREER SERVICES WORKSHOPS

Am I in the Right Curriculum?

Your curriculum has an effect on your future educational and vocational decisions. Students are sometimes in the wrong curriculum without realizing it. Unfortunately, this is not always brought to their attention. Attend this workshop and explore your concerns with a counselor if you are unsure of the appropriateness of your curriculum in relationship to your goals.

Dates/Times:	Thursday, September 13 at 11:00
	Monday September 24 at 11:00
Location:	B-102, Veterans Services Office/Student Development
Facilitator:	Joe Colosi

Career Planning

It is very common for students to be undecided about their career goals. This seminar educates students on the career planning process and is intended to increase students' awareness of various career choices. While engaged in the career planning process, students should have as much information as possible about career options. A variety of testing instruments to help students with career decision making will also be explored. Additional print and online resources will also be explained.

Dates/Times:	Friday, October 26 at 10:00
Location:	A-131, Student Development
Facilitator:	Alissa Shugats-Cummings

So You Want to Go Into a High Demand Program?

	Friday, November 9 at 12:30
Location:	A-131, Student Development
Facilitator:	Tonya Ackley

Effective Job Search

What is the "Hidden Job Market" and how can I access it? Researching, networking, and making contacts are all steps in conducting a successful job search. The key elements in searching for employment will be examined.

Dates/Times:	Tuesday, November 13 at 12:30
	Thursday, November 29 at 12:00
Location:	A-131, Student Development
Facilitator:	Alissa Shugats-Cummings

Effective Interview Skills

An interview is your opportunity to discuss, in person, your qualifications for a position. Because you usually only get one chance to make a good impression, it is important to know how to prepare for this important meeting. What to do - and what not to do - in an interview will be discussed?

In addition, a mock interview can be arranged with a counselor.

Dates/Times:	Tuesday, September 11 at 11:00
	Tuesday, October 16 at 1:00
	Monday, November 19 at 1:00
